

British Values

Democracy

LESSONS

Lessons

Children are encouraged to share resources and take turns during sessions. They have an opportunity to vote during "golden Time".

PLAYTIMES AND LUNCHTIMES

Playtimes and Lunchtimes

Children are encouraged to share resources and take turns during sessions. Turn taking and fairness are promoted and modelled by staff.

DAY TO DAY

Day to Day

Langley School has a school council who vote on school decisions as a representative of their peers.

WITH PARENTS/ CARERS

With parents/ carers

Langley School holds meetings with parents to discuss changes which can support them with their child. Parent questionnaires and advice about Parent View is promoted through the school website and newsletters.

British Values

Rule of Law

LESSONS

Lessons

Children are supported by staff daily to follow school stars and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Children are rewarded for their efforts through golden time and are supported through a range of positive behaviour management strategies when dysregulated.

Playtimes and Lunchtimes

Children are supported by staff daily to follow the school stars on the playground and in the dinner hall. They are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Children are supported when they are dysregulated through a range of positive behaviour strategies.

PLAYTIMES AND LUNCHTIMES

DAY TO DAY

Day to Day

Children are supported by staff daily to follow the school stars and are actively encouraged to demonstrate these. Children are supported when they are dysregulated through a range of positive behaviour strategies.

WITH PARENTS/ CARERS

With parents/ carers

Langley School reminds parents and carers of their responsibilities in meetings. A Home/ School agreement is signed when their child starts Langley School. Langley School alongside external professionals, supports parents/ carers with behaviours and setting boundaries with their child if requested to do so.

British Values Individual Liberty & Tolerance

LESSONS

Lessons

Children are encouraged to make choices about their learning, social interactions with peers and staff, and golden time. Children can access a range of activities during Golden Time.

PLAYTIMES AND LUNCHTIMES

Playtimes and Lunchtimes

Children make an active choice about the food, snacks and drinks they have during the school day. They have access to a range of lunch time clubs and playground activities.

DAY TO DAY

Day to Day

A range of communication and accessible aids are provided to enable children with communication difficulties to interact with the world around them. Langley School celebrates a range of cultures and religions.

WITH PARENTS/ CARERS

With parents/ carers

Langley School discusses choice making with parents/ carers when their child struggles to communicate their needs.

British Values Mutual Respect

LESSONS

Lessons

Children are encouraged to explore the feelings of others through daily activities and bespoke lessons. During lessons, children are encouraged to listen and respect others views.

PLAYTIMES AND LUNCHTIMES

Playtimes and Lunchtimes

During playtime and lunchtime, children are encouraged to listen and respect the view of others.

DAY TO DAY

Day to Day

All children are encouraged to respect the views of others. Staff actively model tolerance and celebrating differences during day to day sessions.

WITH PARENTS/ CARERS

With parents/ carers

We consult with families when we are making big decisions that will affect them and their family.